

WE SHOULD NEVER FORGET THE PAST

CENTRO COMUNITARIO CEUS INVITES YOU TO A SPECIAL BREAKFAST TO REMEMBER THE LIVES OF THE FOUR MARYKNOLL NUNS IN EL SALVADOR ON THE 30th ANIVERSARY OF THEIR ASSASSINATION.

When: Saturday
4th of December
Time: 9.00 a.m
Where: Centro
Comunitario CEUS
4511 New York
Ave. Union City, NJ

Enjoy typical Salvadoran food and hear Father Terence Moran and others discuss the legacy of the nuns and the impact of their work.

“If we leave the people when they suffer on the cross, how will we believe the word about them. The role of the church is to accompany those that suffer and demonstrate our faith in the resurrection.”

The Maryknoll nuns were four sisters of the church who were assassinated in 1980 in El Salvador as part of the government repression at that time. Like Monsenor Romero, they worked with those who suffered and fled the violence of the civil war.

They were: Ita Ford, Maura Clarke, Dorothy Kazel and the lay missionary Jean Donovan. Each was committed to helping the poor and gave their lives for their beliefs.
